

“Who is Your Authority?”

Based on Mark 1:21-28 (NIV)      January 28, 2018
Neil Peck, preaching

† Beginning in the days of Ezra, about 450 B.C., a group of ten Jewish families could start a synagogue.

† Jesus as a visiting teacher and was asked to speak.

† This is a story about the authority of Jesus.

† Because Jesus is still with me in the power of God’s Holy Spirit, I am still inspired by his teachings in scripture and prayer.

-----

† Jesus wants to release me from all that keeps me from having a right relationship with God and with others.

Applying Today’s Message to My Life:

† Who do I take orders from?

† When have I rejected the authority of someone?

† When have I rejected God’s authority in my life?

† What is one way I can more fully follow Jesus’ authority this week?
