

“Stand Firm”

November 17, 2019

Based on Luke 21:8-19 (NIV)

Neil Peck, preaching

† There have always been prophets of gloom and doom.

† There is nothing new in predictions of catastrophe.

† Jesus is telling them it is not the end of the world, just the beginning of a new day.

† Hard times can shake my faith to its core.

† God has not, and never will, desert me.

† When my world is shaken and collapsing, God is standing in the midst of all the rubble, protecting me.

† Jesus stands firmly with me and gives me hope!

Applying Today's Message to My Life:

† When have I felt that my world had collapsed around me?
How was God helping me?

† When have I witnessed someone else's world collapsing around them?
How was God helping them?

† How will I share the hope that God gives me with others?

† How will God use me, this week, to help others who feel their world is collapsing around them?
