

“Hopes and Dreams”

Based on Luke 2:22-33 (NIV) December 31, 2017
Neil Peck, preaching

† Simeon responds to the prodding of the Holy Spirit and offers a blessing for Jesus called the Nunc Dimittis (Translation: The Song of Simeon).

† It is in the baby Jesus that Simeon sees hope and he speaks up.

† The birth of a baby brings a big change not only to the life of his/her parents but also to the rest of the community.

† Life becomes different with each anticipated or unexpected change.

† Wherever I am on my life's journey, I can hold high hopes and dream big dreams.

Applying Today's Message to My Life:

† What new thing has happened in my life recently?
- What is God offering to me in this new “thing”?

† What were my hopes and dreams for 2017?

† What were God's hopes and dreams for me in 2017?

† What are my hopes and dreams for 2018?

† What are God's hopes and dreams for me in 2018?
